

character name	description
Old Major	The prize-winning boar whose vision of a socialist utopia serves as the inspiration for the revolution.
Napoleon	A pig who proves more ruthless than his counterpart, Snowball, in pursuing the revolution.
Snowball	A pig who seems to be a democratic leader and one of the main instigators of the revolution.
Boxer	A loyal, kind, hardworking horse whose personal motto is "I will work harder."
Squealer	An extremely persuasive pig who acts as an effective propagandist for Napoleon.
Benjamin	An old donkey who is cynical about revolution but still devoted to Boxer and the animals.
Clover	A caring female horse whose conscience leads her to question some of Napoleon's actions.
Muriel	An older sheep with a good memory who helps teach younger animals the Seven Commandments.
Mollie	A vain horse who prefers ribbons and sugar over revolution; she eventually leaves the farm.
Moses	An elderly raven whom Mr Jones occasionally brings back from trips into the neighboring woods.
Mr Jones	The cruel farmer from whom the animals revolt at the beginning of Animal Farm.